

Working in Partnerships and Health

10th March 2014, 10:30 – 3pm

Directory of Social Change, 24 Stephenson Way, London NW1 2DP

Citizens Advice and Wandsworth CABx are hosting a free one-day event combining the key topics of health and partnership-working under the Advice Services Transition Fund. This event is open to all ASTF projects in London, the South East and South West, including non-bureaux

Purpose of the event

Morning session: To learn about the Department of Health funded Health and Advice pilot and the tools available to help demonstrate the positive impact your advice can have on client health and wellbeing

Networking opportunities: during lunch and after the event has finished (the venue will be available after the event for further networking)

Afternoon session: An opportunity to meet colleagues from other London ASTF partnerships and discuss key aspects of partnership working including via facilitated workshops

Who should attend ASTF project managers, partner members and work-strand leads
